

CODE OF CONDUCT

1. All personal information must be treated as confidential at all times.
2. Parents and carers are fully responsible for their own children.
3. Please respect our equipment and facilities and report any breakages or faults.
4. You must inform us if you can no longer make a session you have booked on. Continual non attendance will result in future bookings being declined.
5. Abusive, threatening or behaviour that causes a negative effect on the charity, its beneficiaries, staff and trustees will not be tolerated and will result in your family or the individual being asked to leave.
6. We are a non political organisation and therefore will not tolerate any person bringing their own agenda

This code is written in agreement with the parent led steering group to ensure all families have an enjoyable and fulfilling time with us.
